Our Friday Zoom seminar got off to a good start

Our series of weekly Zoom lectures on Hyperbolic Problems on Friday at 3 pm got off to a good start with a lecture by Remi Abgrall. His lecture touched on important open questions. I have asked Wasilij to join us on Tuesday Sept. 28 in our Zoom group meeting so we can shed more light on this.

Here is the list of the upcoming lectures:

- Oct. 1: Viktor Linders
- Oct. 8: Stéphane Brull
- Oct. 15: Giovanni Russo
- Oct. 22: Dmitri Kuzmin
- Oct 29: Lorenzo Pareschi
- Nov. 5: Francis Filbet
- Nov. 12: Dave Ketcheson
- Nov. 19: Walter Boscheri
- Nov. 26: Matteo Semplice
- Dec 3: Raphael Loubère
- Dec. 10: Frank Martin

A week ago Farah Kanbar attended a workshop in the Alps

One week ago Farah Kanbar returned from the Hirschegg Workshop on Conservation Laws in the beautiful Kleinwalsertal in the Alps. The participants were mainly from Germany (see the schedule of the workshop here). Farah presented her work, which was well received. In addition there was plenty of hiking, see the pictures she took.

Sandra Warnecke got married

Late in August Sandra got married - we wish you all the best for your upcoming years together!

Kathrin Hellmuth’s birthday

Congratulations, Kathrin, for your birthday two weeks ago!

Upcoming scientific conferences

Go ahead and click the links to check where you might want to participate.

2021:

- Nov. 8 - 12, 2022: Convex Integration and Nonlinear Partial Differential Equations, a hybrid workshop organized among others by Gui-Qiang Chen and László Székelyhidi.

2022:

- Jan. 10 - June 24, 2022: Frontiers in kinetic theory: connecting microscopic to macroscopic scales - KineCon 2022, a one semester program organized at the Newton Institute at Cambridge University with 5 one week workshops in this time.
- Feb. 14 - 18: Rigorous analysis of incompressible fluid models and turbulence organized among others by Anna Mazzukato and Edriss Titi.
- April 4 - 8, 2022: HIGH ORDER NONLINEAR NUMERICAL METHODS FOR EVOLUTIONARY PDEs: THEORY AND APPLICATIONS (HONOM) in Braga, Portugal, organized by Raphael Loubère und Stephane Clain.
